In furtherance of specific CSR projects or programs, the Company will engage and collaborate with NGOs, registered Trusts, Societies and Section 8 Companies, in order to implement the CSR programs.

(8) Financial Outlay for CSR Activities

- (a) Every year, the Company shall with the approval of its Board make a budgetary allocation for CSR Activities/ Projects for the year. The budgetary allocation will be based on the profitability of the Company and the requirements of applicable laws.
- (b) The Company expects to spend the budgeted amount allocated for CSR Activities/ Projects planned for each financial year, within that year. If for any reason, the budget of a year remains unutilized, the same would not lapse and would be carried forward to the next year for expenditure on CSR Activities, which were planned for implementation in the previous year, but could not be completed due to some reason. The CSR Committee and the Board of Directors will disclose the reasons for not being able to spend the entire budgeted amount on the CSR Activities as planned for that year.
- (c) The amount allocated for emergency needs but not utilized in the year of its allocation may be carried forward to the next year for utilization for CSR Activities.
- (d) Any surplus arising out of the CSR Activities, Projects or Programs shall not form part of the business profits of the Company.

(9) Implementation

- (a) The Company will integrate its CSR plans and strategy with its business plans and strategies. For effective implementation, long term CSR plans, if any, will be broken down into medium-term and short-term plans. Each plan recommended by the CSR Committee should specify the CSR Activities planned to be undertaken for each year, define the responsibilities of the designated authorities to be engaged in this task, and also prescribe the measurable and the expected outcome and social/ environmental impact of the CSR Activities.
- (b) The Company recognizes that the period of implementation of its long term CSR projects can extend over several years depending upon the expected outcomes/ impact thereof. While planning for such long-term Projects the CSR Committee would estimate the total cost of each Project and recommend to the Board of Directors of the Company that the Company should commit such amount for long term expenditure till the completion of the Project.
- (c) Each long-term Project will be broken up into annual targets and activities to be implemented sequentially on a yearly basis, and the budget would have to be allocated for the implementation of these activities and achievement of targets set for each successive year, till the final completion of the Project.
- (d) Where the CSR Activities are closely aligned with the business strategy and the Company possesses core competence to do it, the Company may take up the implementation of CSR Project with its own manpower and resources, if the CSR Committee is confident of its organizational capability to execute such Projects.

- (e) If in the opinion of the CSR Committee, the implementation of CSR Projects requires specialized knowledge and skills, and if the Company does not have such expertise in-house, the wherewithal, and dedicated staff to carry out such activities, the CSR Committee may recommend to avail the services of external specialized agencies for the implementation of such CSR projects.
- (f) In the event an external agency is engaged for the purposes of the CSR initiatives of the Company, the Company will need to enter into an agreement with the relevant executing/implementing external agency, setting out the terms and conditions of the engagement of the external agency.

(10) Monitoring

- (a) The Company recognizes that monitoring is critical for assessment of the progress as regards timelines, budgetary expenditure and achievement of targets. Monitoring may be done periodically with the help of identified key performance indicators, the periodicity being determined primarily by the nature of key performance indicators.
- (b) Monitoring will be done in project mode with continuous feedback mechanism, and recourse always available for midcourse correction in implementation, whenever required.
- (c) The performance of the Company's CSR Activities would be monitored on the basis of their achievement of annual targets and the utilization of their annual budgets for the activities planned and the targets set for each year.
- (d) Implementation and monitoring of the CSR Activities will be overseen by the CSR Committee. The monitoring and evaluation may be assigned by the CSR Committee to an independent external agency for the sake of objectivity and transparency. If the Projects are being implemented by external agencies, the Company may in consultation with CSR Committee designate special executives for this purpose.

(11) Information Dissemination

- (a) The Company's engagement in this domain is disseminated on its website, annual reports and its house journals as and when deem fit.
- (b) Further the contents of the CSR Policy shall be disclosed in the Directors' Report and the same shall also be displayed on the Company's website.
